

Title III: Allowable Uses of Funds

Districts must use their Title III funds to increase English language proficiency and achievement in core academic areas.

Allowable uses include:

- ~~Hiring ESOL-endorsed teachers to provide scientifically based high-quality language instruction.~~
- Hiring paraprofessionals to work under the district supervision of certified or ESOL-endorsed teachers.
- Providing high quality professional development for classroom teachers, principals, administrators, and other school or community-based personnel.
- Upgrading program objectives and effective instruction strategies.
- ~~Identifying, acquiring, and upgrading curricula, instruction materials, educational software, and assessment procedures.~~
- Developing and implementing language instruction that is coordinated with other relevant programs and services (e.g. Title I.A, Title I.C, Gifted, etc.).
- Providing community participation programs, family literacy services, and parent outreach and training activities to ELL and their families.
- Providing tutorials and supplemental instruction in academic or vocational programs.
- Supplementing early childhood programs for ELL.
